QUESTION 1) Then Jesus Christ the Holy Spirit impregnated the virgin Mary and becomes the Biological Father of Himself?

Luke 1:35 says it was the “power of the highest.” That’s the Father. The Spirit of Christ (the Comforter) had not yet been given.

John 7:38 says, “He that believeth on me, as the scripture hath said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water.”

John 7:39 (But this spake he of the Spirit, which they that believe on him should receive: for the Holy Ghost was not yet given; because that Jesus was not yet glorified.)” The word “given” is supplied in the KJV.

This is not to be confused with Christ as the spirit before He became flesh. He was the “Angel [ministering spirit] of the Lord” in the Old Testament. “After his transgression God would communicate to man through Christ and angels.” Story of Redemption 50.3

It seems that without it being the Father, and some other being, Christ would then have two fathers, and the LGBTQ+ community would be right!

QUESTION 2) Jesus said that the Holy Spirit would but He would not speak of HIMSELF but of Christ.

Christ mentioned the Spirit would not speak of Himself—meaning, He would not speak His own words. Just as it reads in John 14:24 about Christ, “the word which ye hear is not mine, but the Father’s which sent me.” The Spirit would speak the words of the Father that sent Him.

John 15:26 says, “When the Comforter is come, whom I will send unto you from the Father, even the Spirit of truth, which proceedeth from the Father, he shall testify of me.” To testify means to bear witness. (More in the next answer.)

Notice Galatians 4:4, “When the fulness of the time was come, God sent forth his Son, made of a woman, made under the law,

Galatians 4:5 To redeem them that were under the law, that we might receive the adoption of sons.

Galatians 4:6 And because ye are sons, God hath sent forth the Spirit of his Son into your hearts, crying, Abba, Father.”

QUESTION 3) He would not glorify HIMSELF but Christ. . . But since the Holy Spirit is Christ then He DOES speak of HIMSELF and DOES glorify HIMSELF. . .

Firstly, the Spirit would glorify the life of “the son of man”—the life that Christ lived on this earth—yet unbelievably, He is still a partaker of the human nature! (See the Desire of Ages, 25.3) While the Spirit is “the life of His life,” the job of the Spirit of Christ is to glorify Christ’s life in us, John 17:10 says, “All mine are thine, and thine are mine; and I am glorified in them.”

Secondly, is this so strange? John 12:28 says, “Father, glorify thy name. Then came there a voice from heaven, saying, I have both glorified it, and will glorify it again.”

INTERESTINGLY, people around Christ didn’t understand this. The Bible says in the next verse, “The people therefore, that stood by, and heard it, said that it thundered.”

What does this verse mean? John 13:32, “If God be glorified in him, God shall also glorify him in himself, and shall straightway glorify him.” If God glorifies the Son, and the Son glorifies the Father, then when the Father’s Spirit was in Christ (John 14:10-11), the Spirit of the Father was glorifying Himself through His Son!

QUESTIONS 4) Jesus said that "ALL manner of SIN, even blasphemy against the Son shall be forgiven you, BUT blasphemy and SIN against the Holy Ghost shall never be forgiven you. How can we blaspheme Jesus and be forgiven, yet blaspheme the Holy Spirit and not be forgiven, if Jesus is the Holy Spirit?

I believe “Christ is to be known by the blessed name of Comforter. “The Comforter,” said Christ to His disciples, “which is the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in My name, He shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you, Peace I leave with you, My peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid.”” Manuscript 7-1902.10

So, when the Jewish nation rejected Christ, and we know that “Jesus comes to you as the Spirit of truth” (2nd Manuscript Release, 337.1), then when the Jews rejected Christ, they rejected the Spirit that He was bringing to them—the Spirit of truth. If we reject the truth, we do the same thing. If a man rejected Christ to His face, later, that man could be repentant. But if that man hears “the Spirit of truth” speaking to his conscience and then later finally and completely rejects that voice, there is nothing more that God can do for that man. “What constitutes the sin against the Holy Ghost? It is willfully attributing to Satan the work of the Holy Spirit.” 5th Volume of the Testimonies, 634.1

QUESTION 5) Worst of ALL, if Jesus Christ is the Holy Spirit then the Bible should read "Luke 4 1 And Jesus being full of HIMSELF-the Holy Ghost returned from Jordan, and was led by the Spirit into the wilderness, How in the world can the sinless selfless Jesus be "FULL of HIMSELF? ? ?" Let me add another one.

You're asking a question that is too big to answer right here, but I will make it quick: Hebrews 1:7 says, "Of the angels he saith, Who maketh his angels spirits, and his ministers a flame of fire." Also, Hebrews 1:14 says, "Are they not all ministering spirits, sent forth to minister for them who shall be heirs of salvation?"

Angels were there in the wilderness with Christ, revealed just after the 40 days were expired, Matthew 4:11 says "Then the devil leaveth him, and, behold, angels came and ministered unto him." So... also, the Spirit of the Father was in Christ, as stated in John 14:10-11, which was leading Him, and so too were the angels ministering the Spirit.

"A measure of the Spirit is given to every man to profit withal. Through the ministry of the angels, the Holy Spirit is *enabled to work upon the mind and heart of the human agent, and draw him to Christ, who has paid the ransom money for his soul, that the sinner may be rescued from the slavery of sin and Satan." Youth's Instructor, July 5, 1894, par. 5

"Strength and grace have been provided through Christ to be brought by ministering angels to every believing soul." Steps to Christ, 52.3

"All the miracles of Christ performed for the afflicted and suffering were, by the power of God, through the ministration of angels. Christ condescended to take humanity, and thus he unites his interests with the fallen sons and daughters of Adam here below, while his divinity grasps the throne of God. And thus Christ opens the communication of man with God, and God with man. All the blessings from God to man are through the ministration of holy angels." Review and Herald, January 21, 1873, par. 16

QUESTION 6) Matthew said that the Holy Spirit led Jesus into the wilderness "to be tempted of the devil" (Matt 4:1). If Jesus is the Holy Spirit, wouldn't that mean that Jesus led himself into temptation? I look forward to a detailed, chronological response to each question. Thanks.

The comments above in answer to question five should suffice to get someone to think in a direction that will bring answers, but I will say a few more things.

1 Corinthians 2:11 says, "What man knoweth the things of a man, save the spirit of man which is in him? even so the things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God." This verse is saying that nobody from the outside knows what is in a certain man, but that certain man's own mind will know what is in him. In the same way the Spirit, or MIND of God, knows what is in Him.

Notice also Romans 11:34, "Who hath known the mind of the Lord? or who hath been his counsellor?" This is taken from Isaiah 40:13 which says, "Who hath directed the Spirit of the LORD, or being his counsellor hath taught him?" So, Paul knew that Isaiah was referring to the mind of God when reading the word "Spirit" in that verse. God's will, His mind, lead Christ—

His only begotten Son—into the wilderness. The Son followed the mind of God in every particular, revealed through the Word and God’s ministering angels.

Please consider the 50 questions I’ve asked about the trinity. I’d appreciate a response to these in return:

50 Hard Questions About the Trinity

There are other questions, but these are some that I've asked, which God has lead me to have answers for through the truths of God begetting His Son, and His Son giving of His omnipresent Spirit at Pentecost. If you're willing, I look forward to your answers to these questions:

1. Where is "God the Spirit" in any of God's writings through His prophets?
2. Where is "God the Son" in any of God's writings through His prophets?
3. Where is the word "trinity" (referring to God) in any of God's writings through His prophets?
4. Where are the words "co-eternal" in any of God's writings through His prophets?
5. Where was the Spirit of God in Patriarchs and Prophets chapter 1?
6. Where was the Spirit of God in The Story of Redemption chapter 1?
7. Where was the Spirit of God in The Spirit of Prophecy, Vol 1, chapter 1?
8. Where is even one EGW quote where the "God the Spirit" was (that wasn't God the Father's Spirit) shown to be included in the creation of this world?
9. Why is it that Christ was the ONLY being who would be allowed into the councils of God? What about the Spirit? (PP 34.1)
10. Lucifer was jealous that he wasn't included in the councils of God, so did HE want to be the third person of the Godhead?
11. Why was "the counsel of peace" (Zech 6:13) "between Them both" and not between Them three? Where was the Spirit?
12. Where is a single reference made by the Bible and EGW where it says it is metaphorical, symbolic, an illustration, or to be understood as an analogy that God is Christ's Father?
13. If the Spirit of God makes intercession for us in Romans 8:26, how can we say that there is only ONE mediator between God and Man?
14. If it was "God the Spirit" that placed the holy seed in the virgin Mary, then does Christ have two Fathers? The Father and the Spirit? (Notice Luke 1:35, "the power of the Highest...")

15. Why, when Christ was baptized and the “Spirit of God” came down in the form of a dove, does EGW say it was “the Father Himself” that would “minister to His Son”, which then ended up being “beams of light and glory” which proceeded from the throne?
16. Why does EGW refer to the dove as “emblematical?” { See YI March 1, 1874, par. 4}
17. How is it that Lucifer was the third most honored in Heaven? (SR 13.1)
18. How is it that Gabriel is now the third most honored in Heaven? (DA 99.1)
19. Why was Adam and Eve created in God’s image as two instead of three?
20. Why was Lucifer jealous of Christ and not God the Father? Was there a difference?
21. How would you explain this? "God is the Father of Christ; Christ is the Son of God. To Christ has been given an exalted position. He has been made equal with the Father. All the counsels of God are opened to His Son." {8T 268.3} (How, if Christ has always had the position and has always been equal, did the Father give the position and make Him equal?)
22. How would you explain this? "“God so loved the world, that he gave his only-begotten Son,”—not a son by creation, as were the angels, nor a son by adoption, as is the forgiven sinner, but a Son begotten in the express image of the Father’s person, and in all the brightness of his majesty and glory, one equal with God in authority, dignity, and divine perfection. In him dwelt all the fullness of the Godhead bodily. {ST May 30, 1895, par. 3}
23. How would you explain that God and His Son are "two, yet little short of being identical," just as Jesus said, "my Father is greater than I?" YI December 16, 1897, par. 5, and John 14:28. (The word “greater” in John 14:28 has been translated “elder” in Romans 9... how can that be if He is NOT begotten?)
24. What did Christ mean when He said the Father was “the only true God...”? John 17:3
25. What did Paul mean when he said the Father was “one God and Father of all...”? Ephesians 4:6
26. What did Paul mean when he said, "to us there is but one God, the Father, of whom are all things, and we in him; and one Lord Jesus Christ..."? 1 Cor. 8:6
27. What did Paul mean when he said, "there is one God, and one mediator..."? 1 Timothy 2:5
28. What did James mean when he said, "Thou believest that there is one God; thou doest well: the devils also believe, and tremble?" James 2:19

29. Why does the Bible show God the Father and His Son having a throne while there is no place on the throne for the Spirit? (This is the same on the table of shewbread in the sanctuary...)
30. What did EGW mean when she said, "The Holy Spirit, which proceeds from the only begotten Son of God..."? {RH April 5, 1906, par. 16}
31. What does the Bible mean when it says, "the Spirit of truth, which proceedeth from the Father..."? (John 15:26)
32. What does the Bible mean when it says, "the Father that dwelleth in me, He doeth the works..."? (John 14:10)
33. Why does EGW refer to the Spirit as "it" numerous times, whereas she never said that a single time about the Father or the Son?
34. Why did the EGW Estate admittedly change EGW's writings about the Spirit, giving it/Him the name "He" instead of EGW's intended "it"?
35. What did EGW mean when she said that the "Spirit of Truth" "refers to the omnipresence of the Spirit of Christ, called the Comforter..."? {14MR 179.2}
36. What did EGW mean when she said, "Christ was the Spirit of truth"? Ms44-1897.8
37. Did EGW really say, "We want the Holy Spirit, which is Jesus Christ." Lt66-1894.18
38. Why, just after the fall, did EGW say that, "God would communicate to man through Christ and angels"? {SR 50.3} What about the Spirit?
39. When EGW said that "the Holy Spirit is Himself [Christ] divested of the personality of humanity and independent thereof..." does that mean that at some time the Spirit must have been 'invested' with the personality of humanity? {See 14MR 23.3}
40. Is it really this clear about the Spirit and we have missed it all these years? "Christ is to be known by the blessed name of Comforter. "The Comforter," said Christ to His disciples, "which is the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in My name, He shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you, Peace I leave with you, My peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid.'" Ms7-1902.10
41. Was it really an Angel that gave prophecy to Daniel in chapters 8-12?

42. How is it that Revelation 1:1 explains the Father giving His Son the gospel, which signified it and gave it to an Angel (Gabriel, according to EGW), which gave it to John? Where was the Spirit?
43. Is it really that clear in Revelation 19:10 that Angels “have the testimony of Jesus?”
44. Is it really true in Revelation 22:9 that Angels are “of thy brethren the prophets?”
45. Ellen White saw that God the Father had a form, that Christ also had a form, and she spoke often to her attending Angel, but why didn't she ever see or speak with the Spirit? (See EW 54, and don't forget about what Youth's Instructor says about the dove being “emblematical.”)
46. What does it mean that EGW said, "All the miracles of Christ performed for the afflicted and suffering were, by the power of God, through the ministration of angels. Christ condescended to take humanity, and thus he unites his interests with the fallen sons and daughters of Adam here below, while his divinity grasps the throne of God. And thus Christ opens the communication of man with God, and God with man. All the blessings from God to man are through the ministration of holy angels." {RH January 21, 1873, par. 16}
47. What does it mean that “while He [Christ] extends to all the world His invitation to come to Him and be saved, He commissions His angels to render divine help to every soul that cometh to Him in repentance and contrition, and He comes personally by His Holy Spirit into the midst of His church.” {TM 15.1}
48. Why did our church cut out all the Arian phrases and republish the book Daniel and the Revelation by Uriah Smith in 1944?
49. Why does the only sermon we have from the 1888 messages by Waggoner say these things?
"A son always rightfully takes the name of the father; and Christ, as "the only begotten Son of God," has rightfully the same name. A son, also, is, to a greater or less degree, a reproduction of the father; he has, to some extent, the features and personal characteristics of his father; not perfectly, because there is no perfect reproduction among mankind. But there is no imperfection in God, or in any of His works; and so Christ is the "express image" of the Father's person. Heb. 1:3. As the Son of the self-existent God, He has by nature all the attributes of Deity. It is true that there are many sons of God; but Christ is the "only begotten Son of God," and therefore the Son of God in a sense in which no other being ever was or ever can be. The angels are sons of God, as was Adam (Job 38:7; Luke 3:38), by creation; Christians are the sons of God by adoption (Rom. 8:14, 15); but Christ is the Son of God by birth..."
 "The Scriptures declare that Christ is "the only begotten son of God." He is begotten, not created. As to when He was begotten, it is not for us to inquire, nor could our minds grasp it if we were told. The prophet Micah tells us all that we can know about it, in these words:

"But thou, Bethlehem Ephratah, though thou be little among the thousands of Judah, yet out of thee shall He come forth unto Me that is to be ruler in Israel; whose goings forth have been from of old, from the days of eternity." Micah 5:2, margin. There was a time when Christ proceeded forth and came from God, from the bosom of the Father (John 8:42; 1:18), but that time was so far back in the days of eternity that to finite comprehension it is practically without beginning."

"But the point is that Christ is a begotten Son, and not a created subject. He has by inheritance a more excellent Name than the angels; He is "a Son over His own house." Heb. 1:4; 3:6. And since He is the only-begotten Son of God, He is of the very substance and nature of God, and possesses by birth all the attributes of God; for the Father was pleased that His Son should be the express image of His Person, the brightness of His glory, and filled with all the fullness of the Godhead. So He has "life in Himself;" He possesses immortality in His own right, and can confer immortality upon others. Life inheres in Him, so that it cannot be taken from Him; but, having voluntarily laid it down, He can take it again. His words are these: "Therefore doth My Father love Me, because I lay down My life, that I might take it again. No man taketh it from Me, but I lay it down of Myself. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it again. This commandment have I received of My Father." John 10:17, 18."

"The Word was "in the beginning." The mind of man cannot grasp the ages that are spanned in this phrase. It is not given to men to know when or how the Son was begotten; but we know that He was the Divine Word, not simply before He came to this earth to die, but even before the world was created. Just before His crucifixion He prayed, "And now, O Father, glorify thou Me with Thine own self with the glory which I had with Thee before the world was." John 17:5. And more than seven hundred years before His first advent, His coming was thus foretold by the word of inspiration: "But thou, Bethlehem Ephratah, though thou be little among the thousands of Judah, yet out of thee shall He come forth unto Me that is to be ruler in Israel; whose goings forth have been from of old, from the days of eternity." Micah 5:2, margin. We know that Christ "proceeded forth and came from God" (John 8:42), but it was so far back in the ages of eternity as to be far beyond the grasp of the mind of man."

(Interesting how EGW used very similar words as this last sentence.)

50. EGW traveled with Jones and Waggoner for several years after 1888 and believed the same ways as they did. Why didn't she ever correct them on this subject?
